connected to, ect. Tuesday, October 12, 2006 Re-opening the virtual farm market It's been almost a year since I closed my virtual farm market. The time to re-open is nigh. My old servers are up and running again, and so is my shop. You can now order anything from Farmgirl E-zines and Farmgirl Cookies through this blog. I have a new set of virtual servers up and running, but it's been slow going. The nameservers have been set up, and I have my new web hosting account as well. So if you've been waiting, I'm sorry to say that I'll be delayed in getting you all the farm-fresh goodies that you've been looking for. I do apologize for the wait, but there's no need to feel bad or start complaining. There's plenty to go around, and the demand will be higher than ever. So what do you say? Want to buy something fresh from the farm? Then please do so.
